The 7 O' clock Swing Ensemble rehearses once a week for two hours every Tuesday at 7 P.M. Part of the Music Education program, it is specifically provided as an opportunity for our education and performance students to play jazz, swing and learn the basics of improvisation. We hope you enjoy the performance.

This concert by the 7 O'Clock Swing Ensemble is sponsored in part by Dr. Teosar and Mrs. Yesna Bhesania and Mr. Sam E. Hakim.

Biography

Jehanbakhsh (John) Jasavala holds music degrees from York University (B.FA) and the University of Michigan, (M.M.), a Diploma in Jazz Studies from Humber College, and a Bachelor of Education from the University of Windsor. Jehanbakhsh has an active life as a performer, teacher, and adjudicator. He has held the position of Principal Trombone with both the Windsor and Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestras, and has performed as a freelance musician with several orchestras in Ontario and Michigan, including, Orchestra London, and The Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Jehanbakhsh is the founding member and leader of The Umbrella Brass Quintet. The Umbrella Brass Quintet has been broadcast by the CBC on "Music Around Us" and "Disc Drive". Until moving back to Toronto in 2005, he was the Instructor of Trombone at the University of Windsor, taught chamber music courses and was the Director of the University of Windsor Jazz Ensemble. Jehanbakhsh is currently a lecturer, chamber ensembles coach and instructor of trombone at the University of Western Ontario and the University of Toronto. Jehanbakhsh is the Director of the University of Toronto 7 O' Clock Swing Ensemble.
